Soldier Viceroy For India

FIELD-MARSHAL WAVELL
THE NEW VICEROY

General Sir Archibald Percival Wavell, son of the late Major-General A. G. Wavell was born in May, 1883 and educated at Sandhurst. During the Great War he served in France from 1914 to 1916 and won the Military Cross. He was the Military Attaché with the Russian Army in the Caucasus from October 1916 to June 1917 and with the Egyptian Expeditionary Force from 1917 to 1920. Sir Archibald Wavell was raised to the rank of Major-General in 1933. He was Commander-in-Chief of the Middle East in 1938 and 1939. He was Commander of the 6th Infantry Brigade, Aldershot, from 1930 to 1934. He served as A.D.C. to the King from 1932 to '33. Having commanded troops in Palestine and Transjordan for a year in 1937, Sir Archibald was appointed General-Officer-Commanding-in-Chief, Southern Command, in 1938-39 and General-Officer-Commanding-in-Chief, Middle East in 1939-41. General Wavell was appointed Commander-in-Chief in India in July 1941. He left India in January 1942 as the Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces in the South-West Pacific Area. Reappointed the Commander-in-Chief in India, General Wavell returned to India in March 1942. Sir Archibald has two publications to his credit—'The Palestine Campaigns' and 'Generals and Generalship'.

THIRD INDIAN TO WIN V. C.

NEW DELHI, June 18.—It is announced that H. E. the Viceroy will personally present the Victoria Cross to Havildar Parkash Singh at a special parade to be held in Delhi on July 1. Havildar Parkash Singh, who is the third Indian to win the V. C. in this war, is a typical Sikh of 28 years of age. It was on January 6, 1943 during their prolonged assault on the Japanese entrenched positions at Donbaik in the Mayu Peninsula that Parkash Singh first distinguished himself. Two of his brethren carried had been put out of action on the beach. The crews had run out of ammunition and the enemy were rushing in. Parkash Singh, entirely on his own initiative went to the rescue in his carrier. His carrier driver was wounded, so, driving and manning the guns at the same time he brought back both the crews and their weapons to safety. On January 19, again at Donbaik, the Havildar repeated his feat.—A. P.

Washington Expects Decisive Move By Allies

Reuter's special correspondent in Washington cables:—Indications that decisive developments for the United Nations will be forthcoming in the near future have increased here in the past 24 hours.

While some developments in Europe are doubtless part of the Allied war of nerves, the White House is more than usually alert and experts are studying the complicated situation closely. The reports of a split between Turkey and Vichy, or Rumania seeking the peace, and of invasion troops massing at Pantelleria are all given prominence in American newspapers.

It is believed here that the furious aerial bombardment of Sicily will be followed by a technical similar to that used by the Germans invading Crete and simultaneously there will be considerable action at sea.

ITALY'S PROBLEM
The "Daily Telegraph" special correspondent writing from "somewhere in Europe" says, "Mussolini is preparing to abolish if necessary, the whole system of Corporations."

Two of the greatest problems facing the Italian Government to-day are the production of a bigger flow of munitions and adequate food supplies. The control of Italian industry through State Corporations has revealed itself as too complicated a system for war conditions.

STOP PRESS

Wavell To Succeed Linlithgow

AUCHINLECK TO BE C-IN-C

WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR CONDUCT OF OPERATIONS AGAINST JAPAN

NEW DELHI, June 18.

The following announcement has been issued to-day from 10, Downing Street:—

"The King has been pleased to approve the appointment of Field Marshal Sir Archibald Percival Wavell, G.C.B., C.M.G., M.C., A.D.C., to be Viceroy and Governor-General of India in succession to the Most Honourable the Marquess of Linlithgow, P.C., Kt., G.M.S.I., G.M.I.E., C.B.E., D.L., T.D., who will retire in October next.

His Majesty has likewise approved the appointment of Field Marshal Sir Archibald Wavell to succeed Lord Linlithgow as His Majesty's representative for the exercise of the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States.

NEW C.-IN-C.

THE KING HAS FURTHER BEEN PLEASED TO APPROVE THE APPOINTMENT OF GENERAL SIR CLAUDE AUCHINLECK, G.C.I.E., C.B., C.S.I., D.S.C., C.B.E., A.D.C., to be Commander-in-Chief, India, and a member of the Government-General's EXECUTIVE COUNCIL IN SUCCESSION TO FIELD-MARSHAL WAVELL.

Field-Marshal Wavell, who is now in the United Kingdom, will vacate the appointment of Commander-in-Chief, India, forthwith and will return to India to take up the Viceroyalty in the Autumn. General Auchinleck will, therefore, assume the appointment of Commander-in-Chief, India, immediately.

East Asia Command

It is proposed to relieve the Commander-in-Chief, India of the responsibility for the conduct of the operations against Japan and to set up a separate East Asia Command for that purpose. A further announcement on this subject will be made soon.

First Soldier-Viceroy

Field-Marshal Wavell has the distinction of being the first great soldier to be appointed Viceroy of India at the end of a term as Commander-in-Chief of the Army in India. During the three years—with a brief interval—that he has been Commander-in-Chief, he has had opportunity, notably during the Cripps' negotiations, to give thought to Indian political questions. In addition to military problems which were his first concern.

TALKS TO NEHRU AND AZAD
It is recalled that Maulana Azad and Pandit Nehru had a prolonged meeting with him in the course of the negotiations and the Congress President later stated that the discussion was more political than military in character.

Some 33 years before he came to India as Commander-in-Chief, he had seen active service in the North-West Frontier in the Zaski Khel country. An incident recalled in connection with the campaign he had led in North Africa before he came to India occurred in Keren, where at the foot of Mount Dologod, he was nearly made a casualty during a heavy bombing attack, one 500 lb bomb bursting within 15 yards of him.

General Auchinleck's popularity as Commander-in-Chief before Field-Marshal Wavell is well-known and his reappointment is bound to be welcomed.—A. P.

SIR CLAUDE AUCHINLECK,
THE NEW C.-IN-C.

General Sir Claude Auchinleck who is 58 years old was educated at Wellington College. He entered the Indian Army in 1904 and during the Great War, was sent to the Middle East. After being the General-Officer-Commanding, Southern Command, Sir Claude was appointed the Commander-in-Chief in India in November 1940. Eight months later he was sent to the Middle East as the General-Officer-Commanding-in-Chief.

MATRIC TOP-SCORERS

The Matriculation Examination results announced to-day record 51.6 per cent passes. Out of 27,114 candidates who sat for the examination, nearly 14,000 have been declared successful. The percentage of passes compares favourably with the results of recent years, though it is one per cent less than that of last year.

"WHY HURRY" WINS LADIES' CLASSIC

NEW DELHI, June 18.—After a finish almost as exciting as for the Guinness last month, Mr. James Rank's "Why Hurry" won the Ladies' Classic comfortably beating Lord Rosebery's game little fairy tale "Ribbon". Mr. Rank who is as well-known on the sporting field as on the racetrack, is Managing Director of a big firm of Millers and it was his second classic success, having won the St. Leger, five years ago with "Scottish Union".—Reuter

SENTENCE AGAINST LAJPAT RAI SET ASIDE

NEW DELHI, June 17.—Mr. D. P. Saini, District and Sessions Judge of Delhi delivered judgement in the appeal of Mr. Lajpat Rai, a Government employee who had been convicted and sentenced to a term of six months or alleged possession of Congress leaflets and bulletins. The sentence of imprisonment was set aside and Lajpat Rai was asked to furnish a security of Rs. 2,000 to be of good behaviour for two years.—A. P.

RE-ARRESTED

CUTTACK, June 17.—Four persons detained under Rule 26 of the D. I. R. were released, but two of them were, subsequently, re-arrested.

This information was given at a press conference this morning by the Chief Secretary to the Orissa Government. It was also stated that the release order for two others detained under Rule 26 of the D. I. R. was issued.

It was stated at the conference that up-to-date 408 persons had been detained under Rule 26 of the D. I. R. The 1361 convictions under other Rules of the D. I. R. were also mentioned.

Referring to spurious drugs, the speaker observed that those who prepared such drugs were great sinners, and that the Association had decided to take every possible step to bring such offenders to book.

The gathering dispersed after partaking of refreshment.

R. A. F. ATTACK ON MAYU PENINSULA
NEW DELHI, June 17.—Yesterday (June 16) R. A. F. bombers escorted by fighters attacked Aetnamra and Sinoth on the Mayu Peninsula, says to-day's India Communique.

LONDON, June 18.—The Swedish radio says that another 100 Norwegians who have struck against their conscription for labour service have been arrested after a house to house search by Oslo Police.—Reuter.

ROME COMMUNIQUE ON ALLIED ATTACKS ON SICILY AND NAPLES' DOCKS

NEW YORK, June 18.

The office of War Information says, the Radio Moscow reported to-day that the Nazis have closed the Brenner Pass between Germany and Italy.—Reuter.

ROME. THE RADIO THIS MORNING SAID THAT LARGE BRITISH FORCES ARE CONCENTRATED ALONG THE SOUTHERN FRONTIER OF TURKEY.

To-day's 'communique' announces: "Enemy air formations yesterday attacked localities in Sicily, Calabria and centres of the zone of Vesuvius including Pompeii."

ATTACK ON NAPLES DOCKS

Allied Headquarters North Africa: To-day's 'communique' says: "On the night of June 16/17 Wellington bombers of the strategic air force attacked the docks at Naples. Yesterday, routine patrolling continued. Two enemy aircraft were destroyed last night. None of our aircraft is missing."

ALGIERS: The Aga Khan's two horses Nasrullah and Umidaad appeal to desert veterans as having the best chance for Derby, cables Reuter's Special Correspondent.

Air Attacks On Comiso And Biscari 'Dromes

CAIRO, June 18.—To-day's Middle East Air 'communique' says: "Formations of heavy bombers of the United States Air Corps attacked aerodromes at Comiso and Biscari in daylight yesterday. At Comiso, a direct hit was scored on the hangar at the northern end of the aerodrome and dispersal areas were covered by bomb bursts.

Hits were also observed on workshops in the south and on the runway in the east. Bombs were concentrated on north-east and north-west of Biscari aerodrome. R. A. F. long-range fighters attacked and damaged a sailing vessel off Deles Island in the Aegean sea yesterday. Many cannon shells and machine-gun strikes were seen.

On the evening of June 18 a three-engined Italian bomber was shot down by long-range fighters off Cyprus. The crew were seen in the water. From these and other operations, all Allied aircraft returned safely.—Reuter.

Berlin Confirms It

RUSSIANS WITHIN GUN-RANGE OF NOVOROSSISK

STOCKHOLM, June 18.

Berlin confirmed to-day that Russian troops are within gun range of Novorossisk, the important Black Sea Naval base.

A German front report describes life in the dismal ruined city which is under constant Russian artillery fire. It says "night and day bombs and shells rain on the city which is a complete inferno. Everywhere, one sees ruins and ruins. Few civilians still remain in their ruined homes. From time to time, German shock troops march by. They have their helmets on and their hand grenades at ready because Russian lines are immediately outside the city."

This evidently refers to General Tulenev's troops who have for months been holding the southern suburb in Novorossisk.—Reuter.

Reds Destroy Dnieper Bridge

MOSCOW, June 18.—The Moscow Radio announced early this morning that the Russians started about 100 large fires during bombing raids on German aerodromes on Wednesday night. The Soviet midnight 'communique' says: "During June 17, no material changes took place at the front. The Germans made two unsuccessful attempts to recapture lost positions north-west of Mtsensk, says a supplement to this morning's 'Communique'. The Germans lost heavily in manpower and equipment. The supplement also says that the bridge over the Dnieper was destroyed as well as many trains and ammunition dumps when Mosley was bombed."

Soviet Guerrillas operating near Kiev have captured a German radio station. It is officially stated early to-day.—Reuter.

APPEASEMENT OF PUNJAB AT COST OF OTHER PROVINCES?

Govt. Policy To Restore Free Trade In Food Grains Criticised

(From Our Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, June 17.

The Government's reported decision to restore free trade in food-grains in the major portion of the country is being criticised here, in non-official circles.

The exclusion of the Punjab from free trade is characterised here as part of the policy of appeasement of the Punjab Ministry at the cost of other provinces. It is asserted that the main problem before the Food Department is to scale down prices of food-grains and secure their adequate supplies.

The restoration of free trade, it is claimed by Government, would induce the cultivator to bring out his products to the market. Government hold that their present policy had failed to induce the cultivator to part with his produce.

It is, however, not explained why the present policy is proposed to be continued in the Punjab where a responsible Minister has been elected to the cultivator to bring out his products to the market. In a recent speech the Punjab Revenue Minister, Sir Chuttoram, declared that the Government would not withhold stocks of their wheat, for he thought they would thereby get higher prices. Sir Chuttoram did not think under the present shipping conditions it would be feasible to import wheat from Australia.

"PURCHASE AT ANY PRICE"

The exclusion of the Punjab from free trade, it is claimed here, would result in a further rise of prices, and would meet with the objection of Sir Chuttoram. It is gathered that the Government of India, under the Central Purchasing Scheme has been purchasing wheat at any price they get. That provincial Governments do not approve of the Central Government's scheme is apparent from the speeches made by officials of Orissa and Bihar. The Government's abandonment of control over food-grains has already done considerable damage to their control policy. The sugar situation, for instance, is moving in a direction which might force the authorities to abandon its control. It is asserted that the Punjab Ministry could defeat the Central Government's control policy with impunity the same might be done by other interested provinces, not wanting that the Government's original scheme to exclude the Punjab, Sind, N. W. F. Province, Baluchistan, and Kashmir, which has been in the light of provincial opposition. The decision is expected by the beginning of July.

Father-in-Law Arrested On Murder Charge

BOMBAY, Friday.

The Chamber's Jury returned a unanimous verdict of murder against Shankar Bhagat, the father-in-law of 16-year-old Radhabai Tukaram, who fell out in a mass of flames from the 2nd floor window of a house in Kazi Street in the early hours of May 20 and died in hospital later without making a statement.

The verdict stated that Shankar Bhagat poured kerosene oil on the deceased, while she was sleeping, set fire to her and dropped her from the window to the footpath below. The jury added, a rider that the other inmates of Shankar's house had helped in the offence.

In the course of the evidence, it was revealed that on the day of her death, the deceased had threatened her father-in-law with exposure for making indecent advances to her, when he is alleged to have said "you can expose me tomorrow, only if I let you live till then."

The coroner in his summing up said that the Police Prosecutor had admitted that much of the evidence was circumstantial. But very often, circumstantial evidence was more reliable than oral evidence. Sub-Inspector Issak Ahmed Saifuddin Khan, had submitted to him a report that inquiries revealed that the deceased had poured kerosene oil on her self, walked down, set fire to herself and committed suicide. But he had made no enquiry. The police officer had just then gone down to Shankar's room and come back. How he could have come to such a conclusion, one could not understand. His case was absurd. He had gone to the scene of the offence with a preconceived notion that the deceased had committed suicide.

The verdict was given, with the mention of the coroner, the police put under arrest, Shankar Bhagat, the father-in-law of the deceased girl.

Mr. J. I. A. Pinto, appeared for the Crown, Mr. B. G. Fonseca for the father of the girl and Mr. A. T. Jansi for the suspect.

NON-CONGRESS MINISTRY IN BOMBAY

League Awaiting Arrival Of Jinnah In City

(From Our Correspondent)

POONA, June 18.

Plans for the formation of a non-Congress ministry in Bombay Province, do not yet seem to have made any appreciable progress, though frequent group discussions are going on among the legislators.

It is understood that the Muslim League, which is the second largest party, next to Congress, in the Bombay Legislature, is awaiting the arrival back of Mr. Jinnah in Bombay. It is said that the League Party will decide its future course of action according to the instructions it receives from Mr. Jinnah, who has to decide this issue on an All-India basis, in view of similar developments in C. P. Bihar and United Provinces.

The Independent Labour Party, till recently led by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, is meeting by the end of this month, when it is expected to take some decision in this matter.

The party position in the Bombay Legislative Assembly, whose total strength is 175, is roughly as follows: Congress 80, of which about half the number is said to be in goal; Muslim League 22; two non-Brahmin groups together 25; Independent Labour 12; Progressives 12; Democratic group 4; and about half a dozen unattached members.

There are a few vacant seats for which no by-elections have been held so far.

Japan And Italy Thought Of War In 1918

STATE DEPARTMENT REVELATIONS

WASHINGTON (By Mail).—Documents showing that Japan and Italy were already thinking of war between the 1918 Armistice and the Peace Conference in 1919, have been published by the State Department, Washington Government. General Tasketh Bliss, the United States delegate at the Peace Conference, in a report to the U. S. Secretary of State in January, 1919 pointed out as follows:—"You will note that the claims of the Italian Government are based solely on the assumed revival of the war in the not distant future."

A member of the Japanese Delegation to the Conference said when he left for Paris as follows: "If Britain closes her colonies to foreign countries, Japan will be obliged to assume the same attitude as Germany before the war and destroy the 'status quo.'" India Press Service.

BENGAL PLAN TO MEET FOOD CRISIS

CALCUTTA, June 18

A province-wide drive to locate hoards of paddy was inaugurated on June 7, and it is now possible to assess the preliminary results of a movement that has extended to every corner of the province, says a statement issued by the Ministry of Civil Supplies, Bengal.

One lakh food committees have been set up and it is intended that ultimately everyone of the 12,000 villages of Bengal should have its food committee.

Their duties will broadly consist of taking stock of village resources and arranging their equitable and amicable distribution amongst the village population.

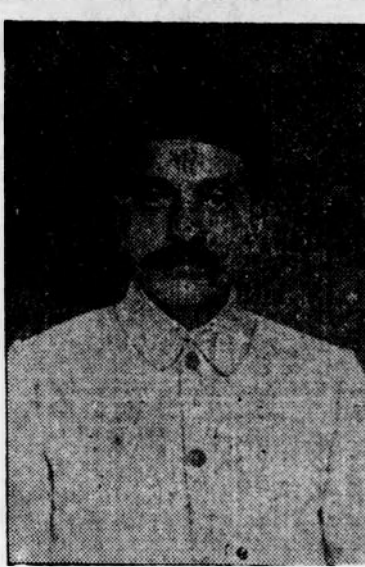

Government will encroach on purely village food administration, says the statement, only where persuasion has failed or where a surplus in one area have to be transferred to a deficit area. It is hoped that the village committees will develop into something more than mere agencies for the unfreezing of hoards of food grains.

In the long run the committees should establish themselves as the means by and through which rural food policy will be determined and carried out.

In addition to the committees, some 30,000 whole-time workers are employed in the food drive, adds the statement—A. P.

Students Refused Admission

Mr. P. M. Joshi, the General Secretary of Fort Students' Union has issued the following statement—

We are receiving news that the authorities of the Wilson, Sydenham and G. S. Medical College, and some schools in city have refused admission to those students who had participated in the movement following the arrest of Congress leaders.

As students we cannot keep out of politics, as Indian students even more so they must keep touch with them. It is true that we must observe a certain discipline, but that discipline should not be such as crushes the mind and kills the spirit.

It is sheer madness on the part of individual principals to take revenge and thereby seek to crush their spirit.

CHURCHILL'S CHOICE

For weeks past the British Press has been publishing speculations about the successor to Lord Linlithgow as Viceroy of India. Every possible name was mentioned and, at last, it was confidently asserted that Mr. Churchill's choice would fall on a member of the British Cabinet. Mr. Churchill has made his choice and it is characteristic of the man. It has the Churchillian element of surprise and is quite in accordance with the policy he has determined to follow in regard to India—a policy which he indicated in his notorious statement: "I have not become the King's First Minister in order to preside over the liquidation of the British Empire." He has not merely made a startling departure from the usual practice of appointing a soldier as Viceroy. He has also, from his point of view, sought to insure against any possible liquidation of the British Empire in India by selecting a man who could be trusted to deal out to India "the resolute government" which would be necessary for the purpose.

For a parallel, in recent times, to the choice made by Mr. Churchill, one can only recall the selection, in 1919, of Lord Allenby, then Commander-in-Chief in Egypt, as High Commissioner for that country. Curiously enough Lord Allenby happens to be the hero of Field Marshal Wavell who wrote his biography. We hope Field Marshal Wavell, while noting the similarity of political conditions in India of to-day with those in Egypt of Lord Allenby's days, will not repeat the blunders committed by the latter. But Sir Archibald Wavell's record in India does not induce that hope. The reports about the part which he played during the Cripps negotiations may be true or not, but it is clear that, at a critical moment in the history of the relations between India and Britain, he identified himself with the forces of reaction. It was publicly alleged that Sir Stafford Cripps withdrew his assurance about a National Government with the Viceroy playing a role like that of the British King because the Viceroy and Field-Marshal Wavell threatened to resign. This statement has not been contradicted. So we may take it Field Marshal Wavell in accepting the Viceroyalty has agreed to continue the Churchill-Army-Linlithgow policy of "holding our own" in India as in the rest of the British Empire.

So long as Mr. Churchill remains Britain's Premier, we do not expect any genuine policy of reconciliation with India. But we cannot forget that, diehard though he is, he is also realist as he showed himself to be at the time of Anglo-Irish negotiations. The logic of events may have convinced him that the winning of the war—which, at the moment, is his main anxiety—urgently demands a settlement with the main political parties in India. The recalling, as Commander-in-Chief, of Sir Claude Auchinleck, who had won considerable popularity during his brief tenure of office, and relieving him of the responsibility for the conduct of operations against Japan suggests this possibility inasmuch as this arrangement would facilitate a satisfactory adjustment of the relations between the Commander-in-Chief and the War Ministry of an undivided National Government, assuming that the new Viceroy's position would be that of a constitutional monarch. We hope this is the explanation of Field Marshal Wavell's appointment as Viceroy. But, we fear, it is hoping against hope.

The Matriculation

Of the 27,114 students that appeared for the last matriculation examination of the Bombay University nearly 14,000 have come out successful. The percentage of passes thus works out at 51.6 as against 52.7 last year. For a few years past the percentage has tended to be in the neighbourhood of 50, which figure is not quite satisfactory, considering that many schools present only those students for the examination who have passed through a preliminary test. It is said that attempts are being made to raise the Matriculation standard steadily so as to encourage only those students to take up a University course as have a special aptitude for it. The object is unexceptionable but the right method to raise the standard is not merely to make the examination more and more rigorous but to improve the curriculum and the teaching in schools with the help of more and better trained teachers.

Secondly though it is but too true that thousands who have neither any special aptitude nor the means for a University course take the Matriculation, the right way to avert this misdirection of energy is to devise another popular examination of the same standard but better fitted to prepare students for service or non-University professional examinations. For about half a century various attempts have been made in this Province both by Government and the University to devise such an examination, but they have so far failed, mainly for the reason that the examination was not given due credit for the purpose of entrance to University colleges, though its standard was generally as high as that of the Matriculation. It is understood that very recently Government and the University have almost come to an agreement about the nature of a school leaving certificate examination which is to be of a more practical character than the Matriculation but which, according to it, the Turkish Ambassador in Vichy has been recalled to Ankara as a protest against "severe" restrictions by the Gestapo upon the Embassy. The Gestapo, of course, is Herr Himmler's Secret Police and Vichy, like the rest of the entire metropolitan France, is under Nazi control. It is, therefore, obvious that whatever restrictions the Turkish Embassy at Vichy is being subjected to come from Berlin. And the fact that some Turkish Consuls have been expelled from certain Greek towns and islands suggests that the Germans are embarking deliberately on a policy hostile to Turkey. If this is so, the Nazis will injure themselves and grievously so, by provoking the Turks.

Prof. Shah On War Finance

Under the title "How India Pays for the War," Prof. K. T. Shah has brought out a book containing in an expanded form his articles on the subject published in our own columns in October, 1942. (Published by Praabha Publications, Sir Pherozshah Mehta Road, Bombay 1; pages 164; price not stated). The articles were later amplified into a series of lectures delivered in March last under the auspices of the Bombay Stock Exchange. Those lectures form the bulk of the present book.

The book deals with the subject of war finance in India in all its important aspects in a popular manner. It reviews the various methods in which India is made to pay for the war, laying emphasis on the burden of inflation, which the author not inaptly calls "concealed taxation." It is unnecessary to review these methods here or the author's suggestions to lighten India's burden. The reader should refer to the book itself for that, and he will find therein a very illuminating analysis of the whole subject, including in its wide scope a critical discussion of the Lease-Lend scheme of the United States and the latest plans for a World Currency Union or an International Clearing House. The conclusion is that "India's contribution in the war finance is substantial, much beyond her concern, perhaps beyond her ability." But he fears that "neither the appreciation of that contribution is adequate, nor the return likely to be equivalent." He points out how India has already contributed not much less than 3/4 of what Britain has received under the Lease-Lend system from the richest nation of the world, without getting a fraction of the credit that America gets for her aid to Britain. All this, the author points out, is due to the absence of a truly National Government commanding the full confidence of the people. Altogether, the book makes very stimulating reading. It is full of facts and figures and well reasoned arguments and deserves to be read by all who are seriously concerned with the subject of war finance.

British Labour And Germany

The British Labour Party Conference has decided not unexpectedly to reject the Communist Party's application for affiliation. The Executive majority on a card vote was as much as 1,551,000 to 712,000 which shows how far the rank and file has to go before its votes are used by its leaders to reflect the true views of British Labour. Instructive, however, was the demonstration in that the how reactionary and chauvinistic is the dictatorship exercised by leaders of the Labour Party over the British working class. It lends more emphasis to Professor Harold Laski's public criticism of the leaders.

But the conference, which is still in session, has not been without its sensations, agreeable and disagreeable. Mr. Herbert Morrison was defeated in the election for treasurer of the Party and lost his seat on the Executive. And Mr. Morrison is, perhaps, the leading reactionary among the leaders. His exit from the Executive is a surprise, but it must be noted that it really constitutes a personal defeat of Mr. Morrison and not of the Labour Party. The other sensation is the formal adherence of the conference to "Vanistartism," a movement fixing responsibility for the war on the entire British people. The vote was 1,503,600 to 729,000, so closely resembling that on the subject of Communist affiliation, is significant. But that very fact makes all the more sensational the surprise of the day when the support given to "Vanistartism" by Mr. Will Lawther, the champion of the Communist cause! Now, it is well known that Russia has drawn a sane and rational distinction between the Axis and the German Nation and proposes to base post-war policy towards Germany on that distinction. Why has Mr. Lawther gone against that policy?

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Turko-German Relations

If the Berne report is correct, Turkey's relations with the Axis are entering a new phase. According to it, the Turkish Ambassador in Vichy has been recalled to Ankara as a protest against "severe" restrictions by the Gestapo upon the Embassy. The Gestapo, of course, is Herr Himmler's Secret Police and Vichy, like the rest of the entire metropolitan France, is under Nazi control. It is, therefore, obvious that whatever restrictions the Turkish Embassy at Vichy is being subjected to come from Berlin. And the fact that some Turkish Consuls have been expelled from certain Greek towns and islands suggests that the Germans are embarking deliberately on a policy hostile to Turkey. If this is so, the Nazis will injure themselves and grievously so, by provoking the Turks.

Interesting Self-Denial

After Madame Kollantay's denunciation of the "Allehandia" story as "an insolent and ridiculous German propaganda lie," the Soviet News Agency has even more formally denied that blatant absurdity. That was of course natural. But the German News Agency, too, has denied that any negotiations for peace have taken place between Russia and Germany. Even more interesting is the fact that the "Allehandia" itself, while publishing the story, said "it is quite certain that a denial from both sides may be expected within the next few hours." Apparently there was some method, however weak, in the madness of Doctor Goebbels. He launched a story, but knowing that it was utterly absurd he precast a denial and for the rest trusted to luck. Luck, however, has refused to favour him and the "Allehandia."

Caste And Colleges

It is surprising to note how the caste system has come to be regarded as a national field. For many years it has been a custom for the college students to write their caste in the admission forms. Practically it serves no good purpose. On the contrary it creates an air of communal prejudice. It is high time for the students of India to oppose this kind of caste and sub-caste spirit by not filling the above column in the admission forms. Will the students show their protest and give a blow to this kind of communalism in the educational field? Yours, "A COLLEGE STUDENT".

No Encroachment On University's Rights

Senate's Protest Against D. P. I.'s "Attempt To Exercise Control Over Unaided Colleges"

By 52 votes against 11, the Bombay University Senate at its resumed sitting on Friday passed a resolution, moved by Sir Chimanlal Satvalad voicing its protest against the attempt of the Director of Public Instruction to exercise control and supervision over affiliated colleges not maintained or aided by Government.

Mr. E. J. Wadia presided.

In August, 1942, the Director of Public Instruction sent a circular letter to the Principal, H. L. College of Commerce, Ahmedabad, requiring him to "submit on Saturday the 15th August next and on a subsequent Saturdays until further orders" a report on the discipline of the college, including the hostel. The report was to be submitted under ten heads which included the attention exercised by the staff. Upon the refusal of the Principal of the College to submit such a report, the Director of Public Instruction refused to pass the scholarship bills of the Government scholarship holders studying at the college unless all the information called for was supplied. Upon the Principal pointing out that punishment was visited upon poor students who had committed no wrong whatsoever, the D.P.I. agreed to pass the scholarship bills till the end of February 1943; but he added that the scholars should be informed that their scholarships would not be continued if they continued their education in the same college next year.

D. P. I.'s CIRCULAR

The D. P. I. also issued a circular dated August 21, 1942 to Principals of all Government and non-Government colleges in the Province of Bombay imposing upon the head of the institution the duty to take "every step to see that the attendance is as large as possible and that the normal conditions are restored at the earliest possible date."

The matter was raised by Sir Chimanlal in a resolution of which he gave notice on April 8. The resolution was considered by the Syndicate on April 24, 1943, when it was resolved that it be reported to the Council of the University. The right to call for reports, returns and other information from colleges affiliated to the University vests in the Syndicate alone, under the Bombay University Act.

RENT OF BUSINESS PREMISES

Property-Owners' Assn. President's Protest Against Fresh Restriction

Mr. Abdul Rehman Mohamud Yusuf, President of the Property Owners' Association, interviewed regarding Rent Restriction Order issued by the Government of Bombay said:—

"I was not much surprised to read the Amendment to the Rent Restriction Order 1942 that appeared yesterday in the papers, because one restriction after another has been imposed on the property owners and heavy burdens are thrown on them from time to time without any relief. As I had pointed out before in my interview the Bombay Rent Restriction Act, which was in force from 1939, was in force from the premises residential or otherwise, having a rent of Rs. 80 and under. This was sufficient to protect the poor and middle class people against increase in rent.

The effect of the new Amendment to the Rent Restriction Order will be to control the rents of the big business concerns who can easily afford to pay little higher rent. The Government, while bringing this amendment, has not considered the fact that the basis of the standard rents as existed in September 1939 was the proper guide as standard rent, because the circumstances have now changed and the prices of building materials, the maintenance cost of the buildings etc. have gone considerably high. The Government has also not considered the provision in the Rent Restriction Act which was in force during the last war which provided certain safeguards for preventing the tenants from making undue profits by taking advantage of the Rent Restriction Order by subletting or re-letting the premises at a higher rent etc. There is nothing to prevent the tenants if they wish to abuse the law by taking advantage of this privilege given to them. It is a well-known fact that traders and merchants are making huge profits. If the Government wanted to restrict the rent of such business premises, they should have considered allowing some percentage of increase on the rents of September 1940 which has been taken as standard rents, or at least they should have given an opportunity to the Property Owners' Association, to hear what they had to say before passing such restriction order.

In the circumstances, I fail to understand why one section of the investors is to be treated in this manner and an opportunity should be so apathetic towards the property owners?

THE NEW VICEROY

By D. F. Karaka

The suspense has ended. It is now understood that the choice has fallen on Field Marshal Wavell to be Linlithgow's successor as the King's representative in India. Auchinleck comes back into the limelight as the new Commander-in-Chief, though it is understood that Auchinleck will not have the same sphere of command as Wavell. There will be a new Eastern Command and it would be reasonable to expect, though it is not yet so stated, that Stilwell will be the probable choice.

Wavell's choice as Viceroy of India at once suggests that the war in the East and the Far East will probably last five years. Never in our "great" history has a militarist been appointed Viceroy, though it is difficult to say whether Wavell is a militarist or a politician. Azad had said after his interview with Wavell when the Congress President and Pandit Jawaharlal saw the Indian C-in-C. "The man is more politician than a soldier." What Azad exactly meant one does not know. However, the Congress President was apparently prophetic.

Wavell's choice was obviously made at Washington and it is very apparent that it is Mr. Churchill's own choice for a variety of reasons. Wavell like Montgomery is one of Churchill's very trusted men and there could be no more delicate job at the present than that of Viceroy of India. It is also very apparent that no politician with any ambitions for the future would take on so hazardous a job but Wavell has obviously no political future he cares for and in the present critical times Churchill wanted a man who would in the Churchillian way to carry out the instructions from 10, Downing Street. Wavell's appointment is, therefore, not only the triumph of Wavell, it is much more the triumph of Churchill.

When I was in Delhi sometime ago and there were rumours about Linlithgow's successor, the name of Auchinleck was being mentioned. But one member of the Viceroy's Executive Council shook his head at my suggestion. He said: "Not Auchinleck, but possibly Wavell." As this opinion came from a man we hold in respect, though no longer on the Executive Council, it would indicate that the man who worked with Wavell had a high opinion of his ability as an administrator and a statesman, which considering that we only knew of him as a soldier was a revelation.

It is very difficult to give all the implications of Wavell's appointment. It may mean that Britain wants to have a clean-cut military dictatorship over "all this nonsense" in India. On the other hand it is possible that with a strong man at the helm, the man with whom the Congress were willing to work in a National Government, the door for negotiations may once again be opened. We do not know whether we are to expect a new regime—and if so of which kind. It is to be the (Continued in col. 5)

Vitamin A Applied To Whooping Cough

Experiments showing that vitamin A saves the lives of animals infected with whooping cough, one of the most serious diseases of children, and the further discovery that a protein constituent enables the body to store a supply of the essential vitamin for emergency uses, were reported before a meeting of the American Chemical Society.

The experiments, promising to spare the lives of many children, were described by Dr. August B. McCord of the School of Medicine, University of Rochester. Rates deficient in vitamin A have little chance of survival when inoculated with whooping cough germs, while those receiving adequate amounts of the vitamin, found in cod liver oil, recover from the disease, the investigations revealed.—U.S.O.W.I.

Astonishing Statements Of Nazi Scientists

Professor Hans Reuter delivered an address in Rome in which he urged that physicians should stop treating disease and concentrate on improving the health of the nation as a whole by applying eugenic principles. In other words, the sick should simply be ignored. According to Prof. Reuter, "Racist measures must be carried out on a wide scale, particularly sterilisation as a means of preventing the reproduction of the socially unfit." At a Berlin medical congress, Dr. Beasau argued that high rate of infant mortality was a boon because it was nature's way of weeding out the unfit. In an essay, Dr. Kippe says, epidemics are similar blessings because they get rid of surplus population. Thus the "naturopaths" of Germany dominate the medical press and congresses to such an extent that they oppose the advances of bacteriology and the use of vaccines and serums, because vaccination an inoculation may be the means of mixing "non-Aryan" with "Aryan" protein to the great detriment of the German "race".—U.S.O.W.I.

Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohanji Malaviya has accepted the Presidency of the Reception Committee of the ensuing Semi-centenary celebrations of the Nagari-Pracharini Sabha which will be held on the occasion of Vasanti-Panchami this year.

strong-hand-in-the-velvet glove in which case not even a nigger Wavell will succeed in this country where the Moon is always down or is it to be the dawn of a new era, in which case Wavell may be the rising star.

This much is certain. No man has such a glorious chance ahead of him as the chance of getting India behind him like a man. Wavell can handle this job. Or that we are certain. Whether he will or will not, all depends on the conditions which have been laid down in Washington. If the American President has had any hand in it, it is possible there might be some interesting developments in the near future.

TETE-A-TETE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

OTTAWA, June 17. Madame Chiang Kai-Shek was asked at a Press Conference this morning if Japan and Russia were likely to go to war.

"Questions on politics are like questions on love. You can predict about anything else but can never predict about love," she said.

—Reuter.

The Lahore High Court has directed that Sardar Sardul Singh be brought before the Court on June 24 and that all facilities be granted to him to make an affidavit about the facts of his detention.

Quick. Let the Governor-General hand himself an Ordinance. There's no time to lose.

We learn that Britain has sent out a Ministry of Food Expert, Mr. W. H. Kirby, to advise the Government of India.

Before appointment to the present mission Mr. Kirby was doubtless known as "a Ministry of Food Official."

Mr. Jinnah is reported to have told the Sind Provincial Muslim League that those who wanted economic and other improvements should not be impatient as they were bound to come gradually. Naturally, naturally.

Mr. Jinnah further declared that the League existed for the masses.

And the masses exist for the strictly gradual realisation by progressive stages of their own existence subject to the convenience of Zemindars and capitalists.

According to Lord Hailey "We (what nonsense, 'we' naturally means the British) now have a definite object before us—the ideal of Colonial Self-Government...."

And the view of the ideal is infinitely charming, too, because it is so indefinitely distant.

Meanwhile, as Lord Hailey says: "Our (the British) conscience need not be unduly troubled if capital (British) still makes its profits."

STRATEGIC BOMBING OF AXIS INDUSTRY
Three Phases Discussed

What is even more wonderful is that the first phase is actually about to be completed, say, in another two months.

Dr. Evatt, Australian Minister for External Affairs, expresses the belief that Japan may collapse quickly after or even simultaneously with Hitler's defeat.

What strikes us even more is the rapidity with which Australian statesmen's well defended pessimism—their Postscript Panick, so to speak—is collapsing.

Another Ramola picture was released last week in Bombay at the Royal Opera House. It is "Khamoshi", a production of the latest film, Khamoshi, starring Ramola, Ramu Dulari, Shyam Sundar and Gyan and is directed by R. C. Talwar. The music is by Ghisli.

"Khamoshi" presents a story of contrasts, contrasts in social behaviour, conception of love, and contrast in several other aspects of life. The basic story is, of course, of love, but love in "Khamoshi" takes a novel turn which provides ample scope for humour.

"PANGHAT" RUNS INTO 4TH WEEK

The majority of those who have seen "Panghat" Pictures have testified that the picture is a masterpiece of a new movie house starring Shanta Apte and Pahari Sanyal and directed by Mani Mozoomdar. It keeps the audience especially the youth absorbed from the beginning to the end. The scenes, dialogue, music and acting and all have been devised to enhance the interest of the film to the youthful generation.

"RANEES" THIRD WEEK AT SUPER

Those who have witnessed "Ranees", Barua's successor to "Jawab", and there are a good number of them—of the opinion that "Ranees" is one of the best creations of Barua. Music forms the main item of entertainment in "Ranees" and here Kamal Das Gupta has given his best. The songs are pleasing to the ears and some of the songs are bound to linger on the minds of the audience after they have seen the picture. The film is now in the third week at Super.

"MAN CHALI" A ROUNDED PATTERN

"Man Chali" is that it fully works out its theme to a natural conclusion. Nothing is left to vague suggestion or chance guesses. For this, the director deserves a larger measure of credit. Holding close to reality, he never gets lost in a maze of detail. "Man Chali" is now in its 6th week at the New West End.

JAWAB GOES INTO 37TH WEEK

Uninterrupted by the new picture which have been released in the city since its release 35 weeks ago, "Jawab" the M. P. production's maiden film is as popular as it was in its earlier weeks at the Imperial Cinema. The music of course is the mainstay of "Jawab" but story value and the director's command attention of the cine-goers.

"SHADI" 5TH WEEK AT BROADWAY

"Shadi" is being continued at Broadway for the 5th week. Khurshid sings so enchantingly that film fans like to see the picture repeated. Ably supported by Ishwardi, Mohan and Madhuri, the picture has a social touch.

Snehprabha in Navyug's "Ladai-ke-Bad."

SNEHPRABHA IN NEW ROLE

In pursuance of their policy of introducing new screen writers, which has proved very successful in case of Joshi and Boki, Navyug are introducing Snehprabha. Pradhan as a screen writer in their latest Hindustani picture "Ladai-ke-Bad", the all-India premiere of which will be held next Saturday at Krishna.

Known for her versatility, Snehprabha has made a name for herself not only as a competent exponent of histrionic art, but also as a capable singer and dancer. Besides, she is quite well-known writer on film topics and she has to her credit many trophies as a champion speaker in colleges. Now she is adding one more qualification to her many-sided talents by writing a screen story for "Ladai-ke-Bad" in which she herself is playing the leading role opposite Shahu Modak as in "Mangitour".

With no allusion to present war, "Ladai-ke-Bad" is said to be a sparkling romantic tale of a college boy and a college girl living next door to each other embellished with clever humorous punches. The cast includes, besides Snehprabha and Modak, David Kusum Deshpande, Pratima, Sudha Apte, Baburao and Sansare.

CONTROL OF CLOTH SEQUEL

AN EMERGENCY meeting of the Maharashtra Executive has been called today to consider the situation arising from control on cloth. It is understood the Maharashtra will make important suggestions in order to make control real.

CITY MARKETS

BOMBAY, Friday.

SHARES: The local Share Bazar was fairly steady to-day with a moderate advance, the day being the last day for delivery, there was moderate even- ing up and shortage of contracts was visible. Bids of actual scrips are unwilling to part with their shares and short sellers in Bombay Dyeing again were caught with the result that the next delivery was quoted at a discount of Rs. 7-8. Shares is the only source of investment as forward trading in agricultural produce is banned. It is a problem as to what to do with money in these days when currency expansion increases about one crore per day. Moreover increasing supply of money naturally lowers the purchasing value. The market was mostly interested in evening of open business and quotations fluctuated within a narrow range but short covering resulted in moderate improvement. Tata Steel Bids, which improved to Rs. 2,057 and stood at Rs. 2,052. Ordinary Shares opened at Rs. 412 and after improving to Rs. 416 stood at Rs. 415. Bombay Dyeing Shares opened at Rs. 1,985 and advanced to Rs. 2,015. Borward Century Shares were quoted at Rs. 853.

Later on there was further buying in Tata Steel Bids, which improved to Rs. 2,080 and reacted to Rs. 2,070. Ordinary Shares were dull at Rs. 416. Bombay Dyeing improved further on bull support. The market closed very steady.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

Bombay, June 18.

On Thursday the New York cotton market was very steady on general buying. There was trade price fixing and commission house buying on reports of unfavourable weather in the Central Belt. There was also short covering in July delivery. Selling consisted of hedge selling and liquidation on peace fillers from Europe but the same was easily absorbed. The market was firm with active buying reported by a prominent party in Silver. Jeth opened at Rs. 123/8 and advanced to Rs. 125/8 while Silver was quoted at Rs. 126/4. Gold Ready was quoted at Rs. 83/4 and Jeth delivery stood at Rs. 82/8. Tone was steady.

The Half-Column "Dim"

Radio entertainment of a comical kind was Tojo's speech to the Diet. The recorded parts of his speech in Japanese from Radio Tokyo sounded like the sound noises from B.B.C.'s animal section. It was more like yapping plus waves. Now if AIR had any imagination (or the National War Front or Information and Broadcasting) they'd have recorded this here and put it on to show India what Tojo sounds like. When I read Reuters' report on it, I feel this is another opportunity missed to show up Japan. Ah! well, the history of propaganda is a series of missed opportunities. So why waste my breath?

The "London Times" of February 18th has just come to hand. We already know some of its contents, specially its calling Sir H. P. Mody, a Hindu. However, I like the full despatch as it appeared in the "Times". It purports to come from the Delhi Correspondent of this world-famous London paper. Let me quote to you from it.

(1) "All three members who have resigned are Hindus."

(2) "They have, of course, been under strong pressure by their Hindu friends and Congress party sympathizers who have been demanding, regardless of the merits of the question or the consequences which might ensue, that Government release Mr. Gandhi unconditionally."

(3) "Apparently where Mr. Gandhi is concerned their personal feelings as Hindus for Mr. Gandhi and the claims of their particular community upon them have proved stronger than any other loyalty."

(4) "As for Sir H. P. Mody his background is Indian big business, which is strongly pro-Gandhi and pro-Congress."

Now the "London Times" is a paper which has some reputation to maintain. That its Delhi correspondent should have sent such a ludicrous and laughable report is not only funny, it is pathetic. It brings down the prestige of the London "Times" and it explodes the myth that the correspondents of the London "Times" can be relied upon. Frankly I refuse to believe that this is the despatch of anyone even remotely connected with the "Times". My own feeling is that this is not a despatch but a hoax played on the London "Times" debunking its reputation.

YARN MARKET

Bombay, June 16.

The constant fear that some drastic measures may be adopted by the Government of India at any moment as envisaged in the press-note issued by the Secretary, Industries and Civil Supplies Department has unnerved the yarn market during the last week past week and prices on the Exchange which were steady for some time on the basis of Rs. 600 have declined further and after having touched Rs. 765 have been now ruling round about Rs. 135 per bale of 20-1/2s for June delivery. On the whole during the week there has been a loss of about Rs. 135 per bale, about six to seven annas per lb. with an uncertain tendency at the close. In case of ready goods prices have experienced a similar decline in 20-1/2s to the extent of about six to eight annas per lb. and the turnover has been naturally very limited. In other counts such as 6-1/2s, 10-1/2s and such coarser counts, there has been a decline to the extent of about four annas per lb. whereas in case of finer counts from 32s upwards the decline has been proportionately heavier. Reports received from various important consuming districts during the week go to show that for same or similar reasons of fears of control measures, prices have also experienced heavy decline in all kinds of yarns in almost all important centres but the decline reported so far is not so heavy as in Bombay or in Calcutta and such other large centres. It is further reported that stocks of yarns have been comparatively much smaller and although prices have been declining due to nervousness on account of fears of impending control measures by the Government of India, the stock situation in any part of the country does not justify such a heavy decline in prices as has been experienced at present. In midst of these uncertainties, it is not surprising that prices in yarns have been fluctuating on very wide scale to the detriment of the Trade as well as of the consumers. In case of Exports, there had been some enquiry during the latter part of the week for 20s and 20-1/2s and for some important counts but the goods in the local market are found to be very scarce and the exporters were not able to secure their requirements in these yarns except in small lots. The future course of the market continues to remain uncertain and will be dependent upon the Government action in the next few days.
